

PLAN OF CEREMONIAL

TO BE OBSERVED ON OCCASION OF

LAYING THE FOUNDATION STONE OF THE ROYAL LUNATIC ASYLUM,

ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1842.

HENRY MILLER, Esq., Superintendent of Police, Grand Marshal.

The Magistrates of the various Burghs, and Persons belonging to the several Public Bodies, Clergy, Professors, and others invited, will assemble in the CITY HALL, Candleriggs Street, on WEDNESDAY the 1st June, at Eleven o'Clock, A.M.

The Grand Lodge will clothe and open in the WELLINGTON HOTEL, George's Square, at Eleven o'Clock.

The other Lodges will clothe and open in their respective Halls, and will afterwards assemble in George's Square, at Eleven o'Clock, there to be arranged according to seniority.

The whole Bodies and Lodges, after being properly arranged by the Grand Marshal, will proceed in the following order from the City Hall, Candleriggs, along Ingram Street, Queen Street, St. Vincent Place, St. Vincent Street, Campbell Street, Cambridge Street, and Great Western Road, to the site of the Building at Gartnavel :—

Advance Guard.
Band of Music.
Town Officers.
Magistrates and Town Council of Glasgow.
Judicial and Civil Officers of Corporation.
Town Officers.
Magistrates of Paisley.
Town Officers.
Magistrates of Gorbals.
Town Officers.
Magistrates of Greenock.
Town Officers.
Magistrates of Calton.
Town Officers.
Magistrates of Anderston.
Sheriff Officers.
Sheriff of County and Deputies.
Lunatic Asylum Officials and Directors.
Beadle.
Steward.
Chaplain and Secretary.
Surgeon.
Two Attendants.
Four Medical Assistants.
Physician.
Chairman and Directors.
Dean of Guild Officer.
Dean of Guild and Members of Merchants' House.
Trades' House Officer.
Deacon Convent and Members of Trades' House.
Incorporations, in their order.
Police Officers.
Commissioners of Police.
Biddellus of the University.
Principal and Professors.
Beaules.
Established Clergy of the City and Neighbourhood.
Clergy of the Episcopal Church.
Ministers of other Denominations.
Officer.
Dean of Faculty of Procurators.
Officer.
Preses and Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons.
Officer.
Preceptor and Directors of Town's Hospital.
Vocallists.
Mason Lodges, with their respective Bands, the Junior in front.
Band of Music.
THE GRAND LODGE.

The Civic Bodies to proceed Four and Four, and the Masonic Bodies Three and Three.

On arrival at the site of the Building, the various Parties will take the places which have been assigned to them on the Platform, and on the Junior Lodge arriving at the Parish Road leading to the site, it will remain stationary, opening out right and left, and so on with all the Lodges to the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge, preceded by the Masters and Wardens of the respective Lodges, will then advance through all the Lodges, entering the enclosure, followed by the other Lodges in seniority.

When silence has been proclaimed by the Grand Marshal, Lithgow's Vocal Band, accompanied by the Band of the 66th Infantry, will sing the Queen's Anthem.

Previous to the Grand Chaplain, (Dr. McLeod of St. Columba,) offering up a prayer, the Vocal Band will sing the Old Hundred Psalm, accompanied by the Instrumental Band. None of the other Bands, except that of the 66th and Lithgow's, are to play during the ceremonial of laying the Foundation Stone.

After the ceremonial of laying the Foundation Stone by the Grand Master is completed, his Lordship will address the Chairman and Directors of the Royal Lunatic Asylum, to which Henry Dunlop, Esq., of Craigton, will reply. The Band will then play Rule Britannia.

The Procession will then leave in the following order:—

The Mason Lodges, the Junior in front.

The Public Bodies, in the same order as before.

THE GRAND LODGE.

And will return by the following route :—Great Western Road, Cambridge Street, Campbell Street, Bath Street, and Buchanan Street, to George's Square.

The Junior Lodge, on arriving at the Wellington Hotel, will open out right and left, remaining stationary, along with the other Lodges, until the Civic Bodies and Grand Lodge have passed.

The Gentlemen composing the Civic part of the Procession and the Brethren of the Grand Lodge, will appear in black, with white gloves.

The Procession will move from the City Hall at Twelve o'Clock noon precisely; and it is particularly requested by the Grand Marshal, that the various Masonic Bodies will be ready to join so soon as the Civic Bodies arrive at the foot of South Frederick Street.

A Stand has been prepared for a limited number of persons to view the ceremonial of laying the Foundation Stone, at Gartnavel—tickets for which may be had at Messrs. JOHN SMITH & SON, St. Vincent Street, Mr. FINLAY, Printseller, Buchanan Street, and Mr. STEVENSON, Royal Exchange.

The Lord Provost, Directors, and others friendly to the Institution, will Dine in the Trades' Hall, at 6 o'Clock.

